

Carroll County is characterized by extremely productive farmland, much of which has been cultivated since the 1830s. Our current outputs are primarily corn, soy beans, and pork. The latest in technology is used to optimize production, and farmers and ag-related businesses are greatly assisted and supported by the Carroll County Agriculture Association .