

Carroll County residences and businesses may have any of 20 town or city addresses and ZIP codes. Postal service is available from nine locations, with rural delivery routes from most. In addition to the Carroll County Post Offices listed below, rural routes from other locations extend into the county. Monticello, Idaville, Burnettsville, and Logansport enter from the north; Lafayette, Rossville, Frankfort

, and

Russiaville

come in on the southern side. Small portions of the western part of the county are served by

Brookston

and

Battle Ground

, and

Galveston

comes in from the east.

In years past, there have been as many as 49 post offices in the county. By 1900, there were 25, and that was reduced to 11 by 1954--since which time only two have been closed.
