

Overnight camping facilities are available at Deer Creek Park off East SR 218 in northeastern Carroll County. Full electrical hook-ups are available along with modern restrooms and showers. This large county park provides comfortable picnic facilities, basketball court and playground equipment, and a well-stocked fishing pond.

Tent camping is available at historic French Post Park on the Wabash River. This county-owned park also offers a picnic shelter, playground, fishing, and a DNR boat ramp.

At historic Adams Mill near Cutler in southeastern Carroll County, primitive tent camping sites are available along the picturesque Wildcat Creek. A bathroom and shower are available, and firewood may be purchased separately, Adams Mill also offers three rustic cabins that will sleep up to four in bunks. Cabins have electricity and a ceiling fan, and visitors have access to the bathroom and shower.

Adams Mill is a popular venue for fishing, tubing, canoeing, and biking. The grounds are also available for weddings, reunions, and company outings. Adams Mill itself, dating from 1845, is open for tours of its Museum of Americana.

Adams Mill Covered Bridge, built in 1872, is just down the road. Between the two is the Oxbow Natural Area for hiking and bird-watching. An Indiana DNR Public Fishing Area is also located here.

Wabash & Erie Canal Park on North Washington Street in Delphi now offers three camping spots with full water and electric hook-ups. Tent camping spaces are also available along with restrooms and showers. These are all located at the Park behind the Canal Interpretive Center. In addition to immediate access to the Interpretive Center, ten miles of groomed hiking and biking trails, fishing, and other park amenities are easily available. Restaurants, antique shops, the county museum, and many other attractions are located nearby.

The Indiana Beach area near Monticello in White County also offers several camping spots and many other recreational activities.

Southwest of Carroll County at 7414 State Road 25 N in Americus is Wolfe's Leisure Time Campground. It offers tent and RV camping as well as inside and outside recreational activities. A boat ramp and fishing on the Wabash River are available.

Another nearby camping venue is at France Park on the Wabash River west of Logansport in Cass County.